Continued work on our water situation

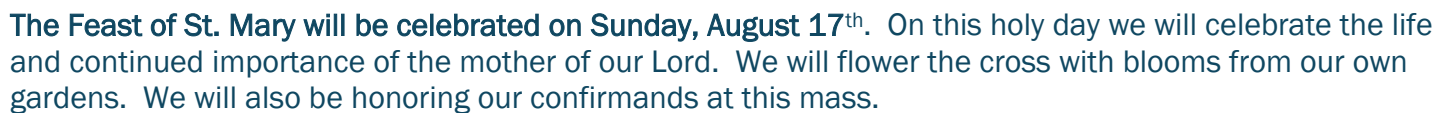

Happy Summer!

While our water situation has been vexing, we are making progress in other fronts. The St. Mary's Hall bathrooms have been safely abated from asbestos. A new floor is scheduled to go down and the bathrooms should be available again for use soon afterward. The upstairs bathrooms are still available in the Parish House. Also, the contracts have been signed with the Andrew Ansaldi Company out of Manchester. They will be starting the accessibility project soon. The project should take about four months, and they are confident they can get it done before Christmas. I know all of this is going to require some patience. The water situation has certainly affected my family, so the importance of flexibility is a daily lesson for me. I ask for your prayers as we continue to make progress on these important projects. In the meantime, we will continue to give thanks for our blessings, show love to our neighbors, and praise the Lord.

Blessings,
Marc
